

YWCA Utah Social Media Engagement Guidelines

We're excited that you've joined us on our page.

YWCA Utah is dedicated to eliminating racism, empowering women, and promoting peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all.

Please adhere to the mission when commenting, and while you're with us, we ask you to adhere to these guidelines:

- Follow the law. Any comments posted that seem criminal in nature, or instigate or imply violence toward oneself or another may be reported to the proper authorities.
- Be polite and courteous, even if you disagree. Excessive name calling, profanity, fighting words, discriminatory epithets, sexual harassment, bullying, gruesome language or the like, will not be tolerated.
- Respect other people's privacy. Some of YWCA Utah's work is highly confidential in nature; as such, identifying anyone (other than yourself) who has used the YWCA's domestic violence services in the past or present is strictly prohibited.
- Stay on topic. Keep the conversation relevant to our online community and contribute constructively to the dialogue. We reserve the right to remove content that is off-topic, out of context, spam, promotional or links to third party sites.
- Keep it real. All posts should come from a real person and a real profile. Postings from fake or anonymous profiles will be flagged.
- We strive to be timely in replying to messages or comments. If you seek help from abuse please contact our 24-hour Crisis Line at 801-537-8600 or 1-855-992-2752. If it is an emergency contact 911.

We reserve the right to remove content posted that violates these guidelines and to block/ban persons who cannot adhere to these guidelines.
